injuries sustained while on duty, lost his life to an impaired driver during Memorial Day weekend in 1996. WRAP's 2007 Law Enforcement Awards were presented by Officer Simms' widow, Lieutenant Pamela Simms, also formerly with the Metropolitan Police Department, along with News4's Sports Anchor Lindsay Czarniak. Today's event speakers included Maryland Delegate Bill Bronrott (D-16th), Virginia Delegate Brian Moran (D-46th) and Montgomery County Department of Police Chief Tom Manger, amongst others.

"Today's awardees represent the front lines in the fight against drunk driving in Greater Washington," said Kurt Gregory Erickson, WRAP's President. "It is only through their commitment in stopping the threat that impaired driving presents to all our friends and families that the Washington-metropolitan area continues to have a rate of alcohol-related traffic deaths lower than the national average."

According to WRAP and contained in the organization's 2008 "How Safe are Our Roads" report (see online at: <http://www.wrap.org/highwaysafety08.pdf>), alcohol-related traffic fatalities, injuries and crashes all decreased in the Washington-metropolitan area last year.

In addition to receiving the Law Enforcement Awards, each of the 2008 WRAP honorees also received four complementary Washington Wizards tickets (courtesy of the Washington Wizards), a $ 25 prepaid gas card (courtesy of Exxon Mobil) and two high-tech and illuminated ticket boards (courtesy of the region's Checkpoint Strikeforce campaign).

Founded in 1982, the Washington Regional Alcohol Program is an award-winning public-private partnership working to prevent drunk driving and underage drinking. Through public education, innovative health education programs and advocacy, WRAP is credited with keeping the metro-Washington area's alcohol-related traffic deaths consistently lower than the national average. WRAP, however, may best be known to area residents via the organization's popular free cab ride service for would-be drunk drivers, SoberRide. For more information, visit WRAP's web site at www.wrap.org.

(WRAP's holiday free cab ride service for would-be drunk drivers, SoberRide, will operate between 10:00 pm and 6:00 am each day between tonight and January 1, 2009. During these evening hours, Washington-metropolitan area residents ages 21 and older celebrating with alcohol may call the toll-free SoberRide phone number 1-800-200-TAXI and be afforded a no-cost [up to a $ 50 fare], safe way home. AT&T wireless customers can call #-TAXI for the same service. See www.soberride.com for more details.)
