GREATER WASHINGTON NONPROFIT ELECTS NEW OFFICERS & MEMBERS

Washington, D.C., Oct. 23 – The nonprofit Washington Regional Alcohol Program (WRAP) today elected the following officers at its annual meeting:

- Alexa Kaufman (AT&T), Chairman
- Fred Valentine, Vice Chairman
- John O'Donnell (Washington New Automobile Dealers Association), Secretary
- Lieutenant Rudy Landon (Loudoun County Sheriff's Office), Treasurer
- Leisa Weir, Immediate Past Chair

In addition, WRAP elected the following nine individuals to its Board of Directors: Margaret Baker (Keeping It SAFE Coalition); William Oglesby (Department of the Army, Ft. Belvoir); Gary Cohen (Glory Days Grill); James Fell (Pacific Institute of Research & Evaluation); Dr. Margaret Griffen (Inova Health System); Dr. May Pat McKay (George Washington University Medical Center); Lieutenant Robert Medairos (Arlington County Police Department); Rebecca Spicer (National Beer Wholesalers Association); and Craig Wolf (Wine and Spirits Wholesalers Association).

Founded in 1982, the Washington Regional Alcohol Program is an award-winning public-private partnership working to prevent drunk driving and underage drinking in the Washington-metropolitan area. Through public education, innovative health education programs and advocacy, WRAP is credited with keeping the metro-Washington area's alcohol-related traffic deaths consistently lower than the national average. WRAP, however, may best be known to area residents via the organization's popular free cab ride service for would-be drunk drivers, SoberRide.
