AREA LAW ENFORCEMENT
LAUDED FOR FIGHT AGAINST DRUNK DRIVING

15TH-ANNUAL EVENT HONORS GREATER WASHINGTON'S POLICE

Washington, DC, Dec. 14 – Eleven Washington-metropolitan area police officers were cited today for their “outstanding commitment in the fight against drunk driving in Greater Washington” and presented with the area’s 15th-annual “Law Enforcement Awards of Excellence for Impaired Driving Prevention.”

Presented this morning at a regional ceremony held in McLean, Virginia, the nonprofit Washington Regional Alcohol Program (WRAP) presented its 2012 Law Enforcement Awards to:

- City of Alexandria Police Department Officer Brandon Smith
- Arlington County Police Department Officer Avery Carroll
- Fairfax County Police Department Officer Harold Morris
- Loudoun County Sheriff's Office Deputy Alexander Bracke
- Maryland State Police Trooper John W. Cabrera
- Metropolitan Police Department Officer Roderick Saunders

- Montgomery County Department of Police Officer John Romack
- Prince George's County Police Department Corporal Christopher Lord
- Prince William County Police Department Officer Jeremy A. Schenck
- United States Park Police Officer Ronald Pisano
- Virginia State Police Senior Trooper Michael S. Middleton

The annual awards, presented at a ceremony this morning at Maggiano's Little Italy in the Tysons Galleria, were bestowed by WRAP in memory of Metropolitan Police Department's Motor Patrol Officer Anthony W. Simms. Officer Simms, as a result of injuries sustained while on duty, lost his life to an impaired driver during Memorial Day weekend in 1996. WRAP's 2012 Law Enforcement Awards were presented by Officer Simms' widow, Lieutenant Pamela Simms, also formerly with the Metropolitan Police Department, along with News4's (NBC) News Anchor Aaron Gilchrist. Today's event speakers included U.S. Representative Gerald Connolly (D-VA) the Commissioner of the Virginia Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, Bryan M. Rhode and Loudoun County Sheriff's Office Sheriff Michael L. Chapman, amongst others.

"Today's awardees represent the front lines in the fight against drunk driving in Greater Washington," said Kurt Gregory Erickson, WRAP's President. "It is only through their commitment in stopping the threat that impaired driving presents to all our friends and families that the Washington-metropolitan area continues to have a rate of alcohol-related traffic deaths lower than the national average."

In addition to receiving the Law Enforcement Awards, each of the 2012 WRAP honorees also received a pair of complementary Washington Nationals tickets (courtesy of the Washington Nationals) as well as a $ 25 prepaid gas card (courtesy of Exxon Mobil), amongst other tokens.

Founded in 1982, the nonprofit [501(c)(3)] Washington Regional Alcohol Program is an award-winning public-private partnership working to prevent drunk driving and underage drinking. Through public education, innovative health education programs and advocacy, WRAP is credited with keeping the metro-Washington area's alcohol-related traffic deaths consistently lower than the national average. WRAP, however, may best be known to area residents via the organization's popular free cab ride service for would-be drunk drivers, SoberRide®.

For more information, visit WRAP's web site at www.wrap.org.

(WRAP's holiday free cab ride service for would-be drunk drivers, SoberRide, will operate between 10:00 pm and 6:00 am each evening between tonight and January 1, 2013. During these evening hours, Washington-metropolitan area residents ages 21 and older celebrating with alcohol may call the toll-free SoberRide phone number 1-800-200-TAXI and be afforded a no-cost [up to a $ 30 fare], safe way home. AT&T wireless customers can call #-WRAP for the same service. See www.soberride.com for more details.)
